About: Arpa Publishing has started its journey to contribute to the joy of children and helping them to become self aware and confident individuals. With contribution from entire world.

In every book, there are messages for adults as well. We're also preparing a resource blog, that can be enjoyed by parents, teachers and every other individual that are interested. That way we will be able to increase efficiency in children's education.

Details are as important as the main tendencies: Important information that you can miss during busy schedule, together with clues, and examples are supportive of your family and education of your children. A dedicated and selfless advisory board has been formed for the children in Turkey, for our future.

With interesting information, idioms and pictures, Arpa Publishing books help kids to become self sufficient and independent adults with creative and 360 degree thinking capability.
